HOME HOPPER.

Vote early to-day and but once.

Pitser Miller and A. T. McNeal are at Sorance.

Vote to-day for your best citizens to be your officers.

Dr. J. W. Nelson has returned from the Centennial.

Rev. Wm. Cochran, of Saltillo, is visiting his friend Rev. Mr. Smith.

Birdsong, who is with J. P. Smith & Co., keeps the best liquor in town.

Our "popular" Post Office Chief has three children sick with diphtheria.

Mrs. J. H. Brigham, daughter of Col. H. M. Polk, is in town visiting relatives.

There's millions of fever and chills in those hot, sickly melons daily brought to town.

County Convention will meet on Saturday to nominate a candidate for the Legislature.

By all means let the ladies be present Saturday when our beautiful Tilden Banner is unfurled.

Charley Miller and his stalwart committee have been ready for raising on Saturday a lofty Tilden pole.

Dr. P. T. Jones can show cotton stalks six feet tall, having eighty to one hundred square apiece. Hurrah for Tilden.

Radicalism has dug its own grave. Now come and help Tilden to bury the worth less thing.

A. A. Coleman has returned from his Centennial trip. He visited, en route, relatives in the Old Dominion.

Birdsong keeps everything in the shape of enticing drinks. Rush to the bar of justice.

The Kahn boys are busy preparing to bring on a large and assorted fall and winter stock of the best staple and fancy goods.

We deeply regret to announce that Mrs. Dr. J. J. Neely, Jr., is no better to-day. Hope, however, she may soon be convalescent.

Walker, the European, still wears that smile so sought after by hungry men. When you feel noisish, call on him.

The young people are indebted to Miss Fannie Richardson for a delightful social hop given last Friday evening at her father's.

The Hardeman Democracy will have an old-fashioned house-warming Saturday. Come to the feast and fill your soul with Reform.

If you get hot with heat, or hot with politics, next Saturday, step into Smith's saloon, and get Birdsong to cool you off with the best drinks known.

Green peaches are sufficiently plentiful for the average Bolivar youngster to remind his fond parents that he is the unhappy possessor of a stomach.

Swinebroad and the European Hotel are still on hand. Everything around town, and especially near the European, indicates the existence of this friend of the stomach.

J. P. Smith keeps the finest drinks at the most reasonable prices. When the time comes that Birdsong, the active man of the firm, can't sell whisky, no body else can give it away.

Mr. Austin Miller and his sister Miss Mary and Miss Hilber are at home from school. They visited the Centennial, Niagara Falls and other places of interest during their eastern pleasure trip.

The European Hotel, kept by Swinebroad, will especially on Saturday, the day of the meeting of the Convention, have the best dinner of the season. In fact, his patrons say, that never before has the traveling public had a hotel in Bolivar where such uniform good fare has been kept.

The Congressional Committee for this Congress on District, composed of Shelby, Fayette and Hardeman counties, met on Saturday last and designated Thursday 7th day of Sept., 1876, as the time, and Memphis as the place, for holding the next Congressional Convention. The Committee recommend as the basis of representation, one delegate to each one hundred voters according to the vote cast in the last gubernatorial election.

David Macon, while walking through his newly plowed field not long since, discovered what he thought was a tin box top, and seeing another near which he thought was the bottom, he picked them up and to his astonishment found they were Mexican dollars. Upon examination he found fifty Mexican dollars and twenty half dollars, none of them made later than 1730. Supposed to have been buried as early as 1840, as there was a house there at that time, and the money was buried near where the fence once stood. The money seemed to have been buried in a leather purse which confined them one above another.

Married on the Wing.

As we go to press we learn of the marriage of Mr. Joseph Robinson to Miss Maggie Newland. Both of Hardeman county.

We wish you success, friend Joseph. And extend our kindest regards. But we are sorry the demands of the hour,

Prevented the issue of cards.

GEORGE W. HARDIN, ESQ.

A Request From the Voters of Hardeman.

BOLIVAR, August 2, 1876.

Messrs. Editors:

The duty we owe ourselves, and the deep interest we feel in the setting of State affairs, urge upon us the necessity of calling upon some man of intrinsic worth to represent us in the coming Legislature. The interests at stake are too near the seat of State vitality to be trifled with; the waves of a sea of intricate questions dash aside men of ordinary ability, and only the strong arm of good mental energy can lift the Commonwealth above the fury of the rising tempest. Several parties have proposed their men, we now express our choice, GEORGE W. HARDIN, and earnestly request him to appear before the Convention as a candidate, and urge upon the delegates the propriety of securing his nomination.

MANY VOTERS.

CONVENTION.

Civil District No. 6.

Last Saturday afternoon, according to public announcement, the Democratic citizens of this District met in the Court House to elect delegates to the County Nominating Convention, to be held at Bolivar next Saturday.

At the appointed hour, a large attendance of the people was on hand, who took a lively interest in the matter under consideration.

On motion, Gen. R. P. Neely was called to the chair, and Prof. J. M. Hubbard was elected Secretary.

The Chair explained the object of the meeting. The selection of delegates being in order, on motion it was ordered that the names of twenty persons be presented, and by vote the same to be chosen as delegates.

The following were elected to serve:

C. A. Miller, A. T. McNeal, J. W. Richardson, Judge Jas. Fentress, W. S. Armistead, Gen. R. P. Neely, Jesse Norment, R. H. Wood, Col. M. T. Polk, J. J. Dupuy, J. J. Neely, J. J. Carter, Dr. P. T. Jones, Geo. W. Armistead, C. H. Anderson, J. M. Hubbard, Major E. P. McNeal, R. Ammons, L. S. Adams, H. C. Tilton, Bailey Macon.

The meeting then adjourned.

R. P. NEELY, CHAIRMAN.

J. M. HUBBARD, SECRETARY.

Club Formed Jesse Norment, Esq., Candidate for Legislature.

Taxation. State Debt etc., etc.

MIDDLETON, TENN., July 31, 1876.

Messrs. Editors:

Allow me a small space in your paper, to give an item or two in regard to the Tilden and Hendricks Club of the 11th Civil District. By and through the efforts of our representatives, A. M. Lamb, Jr., and myself, on last Saturday we made the first attempt to organize, and the result is, at our first meeting we had about fifty members to join, among whom were several respected colored men of our District. The point on which the people want advice is this: They see from the Constitution and Rules adopted by the Central Club on the 22 inst. that the Clubs are to have Secretaries and Treasurers and they think that a treasurer means money, and a great many say times are too hard to spend money, but are willing to work and join the Club if it does not cost anything. They want to know if the District Clubs are required to pay any of the incidental expenses of the Central Club. Please give us a line or two on this.

In regard to the candidate to be nominated for the Legislature on the 5th of August, we learn that our friend Jesse Norment has consented, if nominated by the Convention, to accept the nomination for Representative of our county in the 40th General Assembly. Our people are for him straight out, and a more worthy man is not to be found in the county, and his ability and honesty can not be questioned.

We are not high tax people up in this end of the county, and are not in favor of exceeding the present rate of taxation, and if anything, reduce the present rate. As to State Debt, there is no use fooling about it. No body expects to pay the bonds obtained fraudulently from the State. My opinion is that the next Legislature ought to appoint a joint Committee of both Houses to compromise the debt and be done with all this fuss about State Debt. An honest man who holds a State bond will be willing to take a bond of the State for what it is worth in greenbacks in the market and get his interest paid on the same annually. It loses nothing by the transaction, for as it is its own interest, and the time when he will get any is a long way off, unless by the plan I suggest.

No end to chickens and water melons, crops good, everybody idle and talking about the elections.

JOHN R. REAVES.

[Persons to become members of the Club are only expected to sign their names to the Constitution and Rules. Not a cent is charged for admission or dues. The office of Treasurer is merely for the purpose of holding funds collected as good-will contributions from friends of the cause generally.—Ed.]

An Adjourned Meeting of the Central Tilden and Hendricks Club of Hardeman County.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Civil District Convention Saturday afternoon last, this Club had a session for the purpose of hearing reports of Committees and perfecting a more thorough organization. Col. Horace Polk, Chairman pro tem, called the meeting to order. W. S. Armistead Acting Secretary. Gen. Dupuy, Chairman of Committee on Permanent Organization, stated that the Committee was ready to report. Geo. W. Armistead, Secretary of Committee, then submitted the following:

The Committee on Permanent Organization respectfully submit the following Report:

PERMANENT OFFICERS OF THE CLUB.

For President, Judge Fentress. Vice President, Mr. M. Hubbard. Recording Sec'y, James Fentress, Jr. Corresponding Sec'y, Geo. W. Armistead. Treasurer, John H. Polk.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

A. T. McNeal, James M. Richardson, Leonidas Billa, L. B. Adams, Col. Horace Polk, Frank Fentress, Geo. W. Armistead, Gen. R. P. Neely.

Sergeant-at-Arms, Samuel Miller.

Rule 1. There shall be no compulsory means of forcing the attendance of members, but all members are expected to be present at the meetings of the Club.

Rule 2. All rules and regulations generally known to parliamentary usage shall be recognized and enforced by the Club.

Rule 3. Order and propriety shall be enforced by the President and Sergeant-at-Arms and his Assistant as necessity may require.

Rule 4. No member shall be permitted to speak on any question more than (10) minutes—to be consumed in one or two speeches, unless further time be granted him by a majority of the members present.

Rule 5. When the Club is in a Committee of the Whole, speeches shall be limited to twenty five (25) minutes, and in all other cases Rule No. 4 shall obtain.

On motion, the Report was accepted, and afterwards on motion of Geo. W. Armistead, it was reconsidered so far as to allow an amendment to be offered to the effect that Gen. R. P. Neely be added to the Ex. Committee. The meeting unanimously reconsidered the adoption of the report and accepted the amendment.

It being in order for the new officers to be seated, Gen. Dupuy, and C. A. Miller, by appointment, conducted Judge Fentress to the chair. The Judge accepted the honor of presiding over the deliberations of the Club in a short but forcibly "pointed" speech. He said that unlike other President's campaigns that have taken place since the war, this one represented by Tilden and Hendricks received his full, cordial and unqualified approval. His aim is the preservation of constitutional liberty from the further encroachments of Federal centralization. It meant more. It aspired to institute a thorough and searching reformation throughout all the departments of the government, and a return to the simplicity and honesty of former times. The officers were then duly installed, and the members were pledged.

The Chair declared the Club organized and ready for business.

On motion, a recess of ten minutes was had, to allow persons to join, whereupon ten came forward, and were duly received, making a total membership up to date of one hundred.

Sam Miller, Jr., Sergeant-at-Arms, suggested as his associates the names of H. C. Tilton, N. N. Polk, and A. J. Coates, who were accordingly appointed by the Chair.

In order to prepare for the raising of a Tilden and Hendricks Pole next Saturday, at the ratification meeting to be held by the Club, the following Committees were appointed:

Committee on Banner—Frank Williams, Chairman; Marcus Kahn, Austin Miller, H. M. Polk, Jr., Geo. W. Hardin.

Committee on Pole—C. A. Miller, Chairman; Marcus Kahn, Alex. Swinebroad, David Parran, W. S. Armistead, Sam Miller, Alex. Bager, and H. C. Tilton.

On motion of Gen. Dupuy, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1st. That as members we are very grateful for the interest and services rendered by the Bolivar B. H. T. Club, and will be thankful for similar services in the future.

Resolved, 2d. That the thanks of the Club be returned to the Bolivar Silver Cornet Band, for dispensing sweet music in the interest of this Club, and that we as a Club will be very glad for such services whenever in their power to grant them.

Col. H. M. Polk submitted a series of resolutions which were submitted, on motion, to the following Special Committee: H. M. Polk, Jesse Norment, J. J. Dupuy.

ment, J. J. Dupuy.

On motion, the following were appointed a Committee on Resolutions, to be presented at the Ratification Meeting, and to secure speakers for the occasion:

J. J. Dupuy, Chairman; M. T. Polk, G. W. Hardin, C. H. Anderson, Jesse Norment. The meeting then adjourned.

JUDGE JAMES FENTRESS, Chairman, W. S. ARMISTEAD, Secretary.

In this age of scepticism, facts are required to inspire confidence in the minds of the people; but, with good intentions they are willing to test any article claiming extraordinary merit.

The proprietors of Hair Renewer offer the following endorsement of the merits claimed by them for their preparation, by the Pittsburg, Pa., "Christian Advocate," viz: "The public have so often been deceived by the use of worthless preparations for the hair, that an article of this kind, to gain their favor and secure their patronage, must possess real merit. We are glad to assure our readers that Hall's Vegetable Siccilian Hair Renewer is meeting with the success which its merits so justly deserve; and we have reliable evidence, that it will perform all that is claimed for it, in restoring gray hair to its natural color, and as a permanent dressing, is unsurpassed."
